Making their mock at our accursed lot,
If we must die-oh let us nobly die
So that our precious blood may not be shed

In vain: then even the monsters we defy
Shall be constrained to honour us though dead!
Oh kinsmen! We must meet the common foe;

Though far outnumbered, let us show our bravery

And for their thousand blows deal one death-blow!
What though before us lies the open grave?

Like men we'll face the murderous, cowardly pack,
Pressed to the wall, dying but fighting back!
